

At School

"It may be my only chance to understand my roots as well as understand Chinese culture, which is not very appreciated or understood here. Also, Chinese New Year seems fun."

Your peers say they can't relate but wish you good luck.

You go to China this summer

At the Exchange Program

You arrive the exchange program, and look at your class schedule. A Chinese language and culture class catches your eye.

I wonder what that'll be like? Will there be any students from my school there?

Attend your first day of class